

for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orgill spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Fern Prescott in Francis.

Mrs. Wendell Howe spent a week with her mother, Mrs. Arthur Swain of American Fork.

The Bee Hive girls and Boy Scouts held a very enjoyable party at Donna Thacker's Tuesday night after Mutual.

William Thacker, Jr. died at the home of his brother, John M. Thacker, of Daniel Saturday afternoon. He was born in Salt Lake City Oct. 26, 1877, son of William T. and Sarah Tonk Thacker. He was still a child when the family moved to Heber, then later to Daniel, where he resided until his death. He never married. Mr. Thacker is survived by his father and brother and two sisters, Rose Hansen of Provo and May Masey of Vernal. Funeral services were held in the Daniel hall at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday Nov. 14. The services were conducted by Bishop McGuire. Opening prayer was offered by John Carlen. Speakers were, A. Y. Duke, Joseph A. Orgill and Nymphis Watson. Two songs, "Oh, Death Where Is Thy Sting?" and "Safely and Tenderly" were sung by a mixed quartet, and a duet by Afton Thack-

JAMES W. ORGILL AND INA McDONALD

James W. Orgill, son of Mark and Rachel Orgill, married Ina McDonald, daughter of Joseph S. and Mary McDonald, on November 3, 1915, in the Salt Lake Temple.

887

James served in the Daniel Ward bishopric four years and in the Mutual presidency 15 years. He was school bus driver from 1935 to 1955 and has been water-master for the Daniel Irrigation Co. 15 years.

Ina worked in every organization in the Church. She has been a teacher and secretary in the Sunday School, a Relief Society visiting teacher for 40 years, a teacher in Primary, and secretary in the MIA. She worked in the Relief Society presidency twice.

They have lived in Daniel all their lives and reared a large family: Ora, Bernell, Fern, Curtice, Boyd, Wanda, Merrill, La-Ray, Betty Jean, Maurine and Clive.

All are Church workers.